

PassPORT to Norfolk's Sister Cities

Norfolk Sister City Association (NSCA) invites you to explore the mystique of the countries of its Sister Cities through cuisine, culture and goods. Celebrity chefs in a competitive spirit will create menus inspired by international cuisine that will tantalize your pallet with the flavors of the world. Diverse sights, sounds and rhythms will enhance the evening's atmosphere. From port to port, exotic goods from our Sister Cities will connect us to the global marketplace.

"Passports required" for entry, Thursday, April 3, 2014, 5:30-8:30PM, Sheraton Norfolk Waterside
To expedite your passport processing, visit www.passPORTNorfolk.com

The Sister City movement began as a citizen diplomacy network founded by President Eisenhower in 1956. Over time these sustainable relationships have grown to become an economic engine. Built on the foundation of friendship and trust, Norfolk Sister City Association is an avenue to meaningful international business, educational and cultural relationships.

NSCA works to connect the Norfolk community with business, government and educational opportunities throughout the world. PassPORT to Norfolk's Sister Cities will be an exciting introduction to the community raising awareness of the resources provided by the NSCA and an opportunity for investment to further the sister city mission.

Confirmed Chefs from:

Braise (Germany)	Coastal Grille (England)
CP Shuckers (Philippines)	Eurasia (Japan)
Nawab (India)	Sheraton Waterside (France)
Still Worldly Eclectic Eats (Ghana)	Swan Terrace (Russia)
Todd Jurich's Bistro (Canada)	Press 626 (China)
The Green Onion (Norfolk, Virginia)

Confirmed Judges: Chef Patrick Evans-Hylton, Coastal VA Magazine (formerly HR Magazine)
 Cathy Lewis, WHRO
 David Nicholson, DailyPress
 Tammy Jaxtheimer, The Virginian Pilot
 Marisa Marsey, VEER Magazine
 George Culver, Blogger, WHRO Blog contributor

Chef Steve Sadowski, Culinary Institute of Virginia
 Chef Dedra Blount, Now You're Cooking,
 Chesapeake PS
 Chef Patrick Reed, Virginia Beach Public Schools
 Chef Deon Foster, The Kitchen Koop

Confirmed Sponsors:

